4. The Company is a private legal entity of limited civil liability with economic – commercial, financial and organisational independence. According to its obligations, the Company shall be liable to the extent of its assets. The Shareholders shall be liable for the obligations of the Company only to the extent to which they must pay for their acquired shares.
5. The Company's financial year shall be the calendar year.
6. The Company's registered office is situated in the Republic of Lithuania.

C. TYPE OF ACTIVITY OF THE FUND

7. The Company is a securities market participant.
8. The Company carries out the investment of monetary Funds collected through public share distribution.
9. The Company operates as an investment company with variable capital under the procedures established by legal acts.
10. The Company carries out licensed or otherwise limited activities only after receiving appropriate authorisations and/or licenses from the Supervisory Body and/or other authorised institutions.

D. RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF THE COMPANY

11. When carrying out its commercial/economic activities, the Company shall have the rights and obligations established by the laws, other legal acts and these Articles of Association.
12. The Company must:
 - 12.1. transfer the management of its assets to the Management Company;
 - 12.2. transfer its monetary Funds and securities to be stored by one Depository;
 - 12.3. Upon the request of the Shareholders, redeem the Company's shares according to the procedures established in the legal acts and these Articles of Association, by paying for them a proportional part of its NAV;

14. Once the issue of the Company's shares has been registered with the entity operating as a central securities depository, the Company's shares may be accounted for with any account manager.
15. The Company can conclude contracts, and have other civil rights and obligations if they do not conflict with the effective legal acts and these Articles of Association.

E. OPERATIONAL GOALS OF THE FUND

16. The main goal of the Company's investment activities is to replicate the composition of the OMX Baltic Benchmark GI Index as accurately as possible by investing and reinvesting monetary Funds received from the distribution of the Company's redeemable shares, by following the liquidity and investment portfolio diversification requirements.
17. The Company invests into instruments comprising the OMX Baltic Benchmark GI (hereinafter referred to as the Index) share index. The index is calculated by Nasdaq, Inc. and the intellectual property rights to the Index belong to Nasdaq, Inc. The Company's investment portfolio is formed by following the index, i.e. to the extent possible, investment is made in all securities forming the Index in proportion in which they are included in the index. The index is comprised of the shares of the largest free float capitalisation Lithuanian, Latvian and Estonian companies whose shares are listed in AB Nasdaq Vilnius market (hereinafter referred to as Market). The index is capitalised, i.e. the largest free float capitalisation companies have the largest weight in the index.
18. Index formation procedures, calculation method and composition are published on the AB Nasdaq Vilnius website <http://www.nasdaqbaltic.com/lt/>.
19. The composition of the Index changes with the changing capitalisation of companies listed in the Exchange, the changing composition of shareholders, or when new shares are included in trading lists or old shares are excluded from the Exchange lists, or when changes occur due to other reasons. When Index composition changes, the Company's investment portfolio is adjusted accordingly. The Index is re-formed once every six months.

20. Company investments are in no way restricted by a specialisation in a certain industry.
21. Requirements set forth in paragraph 17 hereof may not be followed only when a Separate motivated decision is made by the company's Management Company, and only when this is necessary to protect the interests of Shareholders when there is a possible risk of significant fall in the price and liquidity decrease of shares in which investments were made by the Company, or there is reason to believe that other events will happen which will result in significant losses suffered by the Shareholders. Failure to comply with the requirements set forth in paragraph 17 hereof cannot last longer than 6 months. The Management Company must aim to ensure that this period would be as short as possible. At the period during which requirements provided for in paragraph 17 hereof are not followed, the Company invests in the shares of the official list and government bonds, or stores its monetary Funds in the Company's account. The Company's investment portfolio may not meet the requirements provided for in paragraph 17 hereof due to reasons beyond the control of the Company. The Management Company must take economically based actions in order for the Company's investment portfolio to comply with the requirements provided for in paragraph 17 hereof and eliminate discrepancies as fast as possible, but not later than within 6 months.
22. The Company and the Management Company must follow the investment rules established by the legal acts, and investment portfolio diversification requirements.
23. In order to ensure the smooth performance of operations related to the Company's share redemption, up to 10 % of the Company's assets may not be invested and may be stored as monetary Funds in the Company's account.
24. The Company's assets may consist of only:
 - 24.1. money and money market instruments;
 - 24.2. securities.
25. The Company has a benchmark index – OMX Baltic Benchmark GI index. You can learn about the Index formation procedures at the Company's registered office and on the Management Company's website at www.am.orion.lt (hereinafter the Website) or on AB Nasdaq Vilnius site <http://www.nasdaqbaltic.com/lt/>.

F. CAPITAL OF THE FUND

26. The Company's shares do not have a nominal value, and their value varies depending on the Company's NAV.
27. The Company's NAV cannot be less than 600 000 EUR.
28. The Company does not have an authorised capital.
29. The Company's redeemable shares are distributed for an indefinite period, and their issue size is not limited.

30. When issuing or redeeming the Company's shares, the Company's own capital increase/decrease is not indicated in the Company's Articles of Association and amendments of the Articles of Association are not registered in the company register.

G. RIGHTS GRANTED BY THE COMPANY'S SHARES

31. The Company's shares are ordinary registered non-material redeemable shares, granting equal rights to their owners (Shareholders). The proof of ownership of shares are records in personal securities (shares) accounts.

32. The Company's shares grant the Shareholders the following property rights:

32.1. to sell their shares to the Company at a redemption price published for the sale day;

32.2. to bequeath all or part of its shares to one or several persons;

32.3. to sell or otherwise transfer all or part of the shares to the ownership of other persons;

32.4. to receive an appropriate part of the Company's assets in proportion to the number of shares, when the Company is liquidated;

32.5. other property rights provided for by the laws and by the Articles of Association of the Company.

33. The Company's shares grant Shareholders the following personal non-property rights:

33.1. to participate in GMS with a deciding vote. Each fully paid ordinary registered share grants the Shareholder the right of one vote in GMS;

33.2. to receive information about the Company's commercial/economic activities;

33.3. to appeal to court against the resolutions of the GMS, the supervisory board and the Management Company;

33.4. other non-property rights set forth in the laws and the Articles of Association of the Company.

34. The Company's Shareholders shall have no priority right to acquire newly issued shares.

H. PROCEDURES FOR THE DISTRIBUTION AND REDEMPTION OF COMPANY'S SHARES, AND PAYMENT FOR THE REDEEMED SHARES

35. The Investor shall submit an order to buy (redeem) the Company's shares in a form established by the Company to the Management Company or a person authorised by the Management Company (distributor). The order to buy the Company's shares must specify the amount of money for which the Investor intends to acquire the shares of the Company. The purchasing application shall not include the number of acquired Company's shares. The redemption application shall include the number of the Company's shares which the Company must redeem from the Shareholder.

36. An application for purchase (redemption) of the Company's shares must be submitted (sent) to the person (Investor) immediately, confirming that the application in question has been accepted or refused, it must also be confirmed that the data provided to the applicant is clear and accurate. When confirming the receipt of the application for the purchase (redemption) of the Company's shares, the person who received it must indicate his name, surname, the name and address of the company in which the application was received, the application receipt date, exact time (hours, minutes) and provide his signature. If the Investor notices discrepancies (contradictions) in the confirmation received with the information in his application, he must return the acknowledgement received, indicating the discrepancies, without delay, but no later than on the date of receipt of the confirmation, to the person who accepted the application in question.
37. If the Investor has submitted the application to purchase the Company's shares and transferred the amount of money indicated in the application to the Company's account before 16.00 Lithuanian time (day X), he acquires the Company's shares by paying for them the sale price of the Company's shares on day X. Agreements with institutional investors, as well as distributors/sub-distributors (in this case this provision applies to all Investors who acquire shares through a distributor/sub-distributor) may provide that the sale price of shares published on day X shall also be paid by Investors who submitted their application to purchase the Company shares until 16:00 (4 p.m.), by also providing proof verifying the payment for the acquired Company shares until 16:00 (4 p.m.). In this case, the amount of money for the acquired Company's shares may not be credited to the Company's account during application submission, however the finances for the acquired Company's shares must be credited to the Company's bank account no later than until 24:00 of day X. Until the amount of money for the acquired shares is credited to the Company's account, the Management Company shall have the right to request the Investor or distributor (sub-distributor) to provide additional proof verifying the payment for the acquired Company's shares. If the Management Company decides that the Investor or distributor (sub-distributor) did not provide sufficient proof verifying the payment for the acquired Company's shares, then it shall be deemed that the Investor did not pay fully for the Company's shares and the purchase-sale transaction was not carried out. If there are any concerns regarding late trading, then the Management Company shall reserve the right to not carry out the purchase/sale transactions of the shares. In all other cases, if the amount of money indicated in the application is credited to the Company's account after 16:00 Lithuanian time (day X), he acquires the Company's shares by paying for them the sale price of the Company's shares on day X+1.
38. If the Shareholder submitted the application to redeem the Company's shares before 16.00 Lithuanian time (day X), the Company redeems the shares by paying the redemption price of the Company's shares on day X.
39. If the Shareholder submitted the application to redeem the Company's shares after 16.00 Lithuanian time (day X), the Company redeems the shares by paying the redemption price of the Company's shares on day X+1.
40. The Investor shall acquire the shares by signing the agreement with the Company in a simple written form on the basis whereof the applications will be later submitted.
41. The agreement between the Investor and the Company obligates the Company to present the shares and the Investor to pay the entire amount of the subscribed shares as provided by existing legislation, these Articles of Association and contractual procedures.
42. If the Investor has not paid in full for the shares of the Company, it shall be considered that the share purchase and sale transaction has not occurred.

43. Ownership of shares is acquired after a record is made in the personal securities (shares) account. A record is made in the personal securities (shares) account no later than within 1 business day after money is received in the Company's account.
44. The Company's shares are not sold in instalments and their payment deadline cannot be postponed.
45. Payment for the shares must be made in monetary contributions in euro (EUR) or other equivalent currency. When payment for the shares is provided in a currency other than the euro (EUR), the Company shall exchange (convert) the money paid by the Investor in a currency other than the euro (EUR) at the exchange rate of the bank where the Company is keeping its account. All other costs related to currency exchange (conversion) to the euro (EUR) and monetary contribution transfer to the Company's account shall be paid (covered) by the Investor . It is prohibited to use assets as payment for the shares of the Company.
46. The Company's assets are sold indefinitely.
47. The number of Company's shares sold to Investors (share issue size) is unlimited.
48. The Management Company shall be responsible for the distribution and redemption of Company's shares. The Company may conclude contracts on share distribution and redemption with authorised third parties (distributors).
49. The Company's shares can be distributed and redeemed by a legal entity with whom the Company signed an appropriate contract (distributor).
50. Sub-distributors of the Company's shares can be persons with whom the Company or its authorised person (distributor) have signed contracts on the sub-distribution of the Company's shares, with the approval of the Company. If the contract is concluded by an authorised representative (distributor), he shall be responsible for the actions (inaction) of the sub-distributor (sub-distributors).
51. Upon the request of the Shareholder, the Company must redeem the Company's shares from the shareholder according to the procedure described in paragraphs 52-56 of this section.
52. If the Shareholder wants his shares to be redeemed by the Company, he must submit an application to redeem shares to the Management Company or person authorised by the Company.
53. Before submitting an application to the Management Company regarding the redemption of the Company's shares acquired in the Exchange (secondary market), it is necessary to transfer the Company's shares as a non-tax transfer to the Company's authorised person (manager of the Company's securities accounts). The order to transfer the Company's shares must be submitted to a public trading intermediary who registers the Company's shares acquired in the Exchange.
54. A transaction on the redemption of the Company's shares shall be considered to be concluded from the moment the Shareholder receives a confirmation that his application for the redemption of shares has been received.
55. From the moment of the redemption transaction, the Shareholder loses all rights carried by the Company shares, excluding the rights arising from the conclusion of the redemption transaction.

56. The Company must pay for the redeemed shares no later than within seven days from receipt of the request to redeem shares. The Shareholder shall be paid in euro (EUR) for the redeemed Company's shares. Under a separate agreement made between the Company and the Shareholder, the Shareholder can be paid in another currency for the redeemed Company's shares, at an exchange rate of the bank where the Company has its account. All euro (EUR) exchange (conversion) costs shall be borne by the Shareholder.
57. Only the Management Company or persons authorised by the Management Company or the Company shall have the right to sell (distribute) and redeem the Company's shares.
58. Share sale and redemption is carried out according to the effective legal acts, these Articles of Association and contracts.
59. Provisions of the Law on Companies regulating the subscription and payment of shares of companies shall not be applied to the shares. The issuance of shares shall not be registered in the Supervisory Body.

I. PROCEDURES FOR THE PURCHASE – SALE OF THE COMPANY'S SHARES IN THE SECONDARY MARKET

60. The Company's shares can be purchased and sold in the Exchange (secondary market) according to the procedures prescribed by the legal acts regulating the activities of this Exchange.
61. Orders to purchase the Company's shares in the secondary market can be submitted to any public trading intermediary. Before making an order to purchase the Company's shares, the money necessary to purchase the shares must be transferred to the account of the public trading intermediary.
62. Orders to sell the Company's shares in the secondary market can be submitted to any public trading intermediary. Before making an order to sell the Company's shares, the Company's shares must be transferred to the securities account of the public trading intermediary.
63. The Company's shares sold on the Exchange (secondary market) are paid for in accordance with the procedure established by the Exchange.

J. BASIS AND PROCEDURES FOR SUSPENDING COMPANY SHARE DISTRIBUTION, REDEMPTION AND TRADE IN THE SECONDARY MARKET

64. The Company's Management Company and the Supervisory Body shall have the right to suspend the redemption of shares.
65. Share redemption may be suspended for no longer than 3 months per year.
66. Redemption may be suspended if:
 - 66.1. this is necessary in order to protect the interests of the public and, simultaneously, the Shareholders, from possible insolvency of the Company or decrease in the redemption price in the event of an unfavourable situation in the market or in the event of a decrease in the Company's investment portfolio value;

- 66.2. the amount paid for the redemption of shares is insufficient and the sale of the existing securities would be detrimental;
- 66.3. when dividing or consolidating the Company's shares, their distribution, redemption, purchase or sale price is changed;
- 66.4. such a sanction is applied by the Supervisory Body according to the procedures prescribed by legal acts.
67. From the moment a decision is made to suspend the redemption of shares, it is prohibited to:
- 67.1. accept redemption applications;
- 67.2. pay for the shares the redemption whereof was requested until a decision has been made to suspend the redemption.
68. Persons through which redemption is carried out, as well as the Supervisory Body must be immediately informed about the suspension of redemption. If shares are distributed in foreign countries, then foreign supervisory authorities must be informed, and information on this matter must be published via the media. In Lithuania – in the daily Verslo žinios.
69. If the decision to suspend the redemption of shares was made by the Supervisory Body, then only the Supervisory Body or the court overruling such a decision shall have the right to resume the redemption of shares.
70. In all other cases, the Management Company shall have the right to resume the redemption of shares.
71. Information on the decision to resume the redemption of shares must be provided under the same procedures as the suspension of redemption.
72. The Company's share distribution may be suspended for no longer than 7 days when the distribution, redemption, purchase and sale price of the Company's shares is changed during the division or consolidation of the Company's shares.
73. The trade in the Company's shares (purchase and redemption) may be suspended in the Exchange, when the distribution, redemption, purchase and sale price of the Company's shares is changed during the division or consolidation of the Company's shares, as well as in other cases set forth in the legal acts.

K. MANAGEMENT OF THE COMPANY

74. The bodies of the company are the GMS and the supervisory board.
75. The rights and obligations of the Board and the Head of the Company established by the Law on Companies are transferred to the Management Company, which it assumes and executes in accordance with the competence of its respective governing bodies, unless otherwise provided for by laws or these Articles of Association. The distribution of rights and obligations indicated in these Articles of Association cannot conflict with the laws and other legal acts. According to the procedures prescribed by legal acts, the Management Company shall have the right to transfer part of its management functions to another person who has the right to provide appropriate services.

76. The Company's asset management is transferred to the Management Company which shall manage the assets under the trust law according to an asset management contract signed between the Company and the Management Company.

103. Auditor payment conditions are established by GMS.
104. The auditor must protect the Company's secrets which become known to the auditor while controlling the activities of the Company, Management Company and Depository.
105. According to the procedures established by law, the Company's auditor shall be liable for inappropriate control of the Company's activities and for hiding any operational discrepancies.

O. PROCEDURE FOR DISBURSEMENT OF COMPANY'S INCOME

106. The Company receives income by collectively investing its assets according to the procedures established by legal acts and these Articles of Association.
107. Dividends (payments in cash) are not paid to Shareholders. All dividends received by the Company from other companies are credited as the Company's income and increase the value of the shares owned by Shareholders.

P. COMPANY NET ASSET CALCULATION AND RULES FOR DETERMINING THE PRICE OF SHARES

108. Company NAV is calculated on each business day according to the following procedures:
 - 108.1. applications to purchase (redeem) shares are accepted according to the established procedures until 16:00 in Lithuanian time of X business day (application submission day);
 - 108.2. the applicant shall immediately be provided/sent with a confirmation that the application in question has been accepted for execution or refused to be executed, and that the particulars submitted are clear and accurate to the person accepting the application;
 - 108.3. if applications are submitted and applications to purchase shares are paid after 16:00 Lithuanian time, they will not be taken into account when calculating the NAV of the business day X. They shall be evaluated when calculating the NAV of another (X+1) business day;

- 108.4. after the deadline for acceptance of the applications on day X, the NAV on the day X is calculated on the next business day and the value of the Company's share is calculated on the basis of it;
- 108.5. after the calculation of the Company share value, applications received after 16:00 of (X-1) business day in Lithuanian time and until 16:00 of X business day in Lithuanian time shall be carried out;
- 108.6. after the above applications have been completed, the final NAV of the business day X is calculated, and published no later than at 12:00 of the next business day.
109. The price of one Company share is equal to the Company's NAV divided by the number of shares issued by the Company and not redeemed.
110. The value of the Company's share must coincide with the Company's share of NAV per share.
111. When selling the Company's shares, the share sale price shall be increased by the amount of Company share distribution costs per one share, which comprises up to 2% of the share price. Upon the decision of the Management Company, the share distribution fee may not apply. Specific distribution fees and their application terms are indicated in the Company's prospectus.
112. When redeeming the Company's shares, share redemption price may be decreased by the amount of redemption costs per one share, which comprises up to 1% of the share price. Redemption cost size is calculated by the Company's Management Company. Specific redemption fees are published in the Company's Prospectus. Redemption fee, if such is applied, is transferred to the Management Company.

Q. DETERMINATION OF THE COMPANY'S ASSET AND NET ASSET VALUE

113. The Company's NAV is determined in euro (EUR) in accordance with the Net Asset Value Calculation Methodology approved by the Supervisory Authority and the Description of NAV Calculation Procedures approved by the Management Company. The detailed procedure for determining the value of assets and calculating the Company's NAV is specified in the Company's Prospectus.
114. The fair value of assets and liabilities is determined based on observed market transactions or market information. In absence of observed market transactions and market information related to assets and liabilities, fair value is determined using valuation methodologies. The determination of fair value in all cases pursues the same objective of calculating the amount for which the counterparties may sell assets or services to each other under normal market conditions or transfer a liability at the valuation date.
115. The difference between the values of assets and liabilities is reflected in the NAV.
116. Calculation of assets and liabilities is based on their fair value which must reflect NAV, under which these assets are most likely to be sold.
117. The Company's NAV and the value of the Company's share must be calculated for each business day.

118. The calculated value of the Company's NAV for each business day and the selling price shall be published at all points of sale and redemption of the Shares of the Company and on the Management Company's website no later than by 12:00 of the next business day.
